

Friday, 15th September 2023

BKD

NEWSLETTER

Welcome Back To Class!

Welcome back to class, everyone! We hope that you have all had a fantastic summer, and are all charged up ready for another brilliant term at BKD. There is lots to look forward to as our crews and companies prepare for some exciting competitions, and planning begins for our annual Christmas Party. Yep... CHRISTMAS!

We would also like to give a very warm welcome to Miss Sam, who will be teaching ballet on a Tuesday, and choreographing competition solos. Also, a very warm welcome back to Miss Lauren, who teaches Musical Theatre and private tuition.

What's Coming Up at BKD?

- Chance2Dance at Alton Towers! Saturday 7th October
- Old Woking Community Centre Opening! Saturday 28th October
- Destination Dance Competition! 11th/12th November
- The London Ballet Company Show/BKD Mini Showcase! 12th November

Shining a Spotlight!

Over the summer, Miss Cathie and Miss Jodie attended the Dance Business Awards in Birmingham, and were the winners of the 'Best Boys Programme' Award.

Go, Team BKD!

Just a reminder...

- As we enter the new term, please make sure that all student's details are completely up to date on class4kids, and that we have emergency contact details for you.
- We hope you stay with us for as long as possible but understand plans change - if wanting to give notice we please ask for a half terms notice given at the beginning of term, or at half term.
- Our students are proud to be a part of Team BKD and take great care of their appearance. Our uniform has been selected to look smart, facilitate learning with minimal distraction and keep the students safe. All information about what to wear in class can be found on our UNIFORM page on our website, where you will also find information on how to purchase.

Facebook: BKD Performers
Instagram: bkd_performers

www.bkdperformers.co.uk